EDITOR'S NOTEBOOK

Dear Archie Readers,

It's hard to believe that summer is here again. Time to break out your bathing suits, frisbees, snorkels, flippers, surfboards and most important....SUN SCREEN. Take it from Archie, he learned the hard way. When Veronica invites Archie to a fancy party on her father's yacht, he decides he needs to fit in with the "beautiful people." What better way to look the part than with a beautiful tan?! With time being a factor, Archie starts cooking, in the sun of course. Is Archie going to improve his image, or just get "burned"? Don't miss "A Burning Desire" in ARCHIE #524, on sale next month. Everyone likes to enjoy the sunshine, but you won't have much fun if you're not careful. Sunburns can be dangerous and painful. We've been giving "sun tips" in many of our comics. Read them carefully and share them with your friends and family.

When I was attending high school, way back when, I had a part time job as an usher at a local movie theater. Every week I had to change the movie posters in the lobby. These posters promoted what was currently playing at the theater, as well as coming attractions. The posters were kept in a little office at the front of the theater, under the stage. While I only needed one for each movie, there were dozens of extra posters. These were eventually discarded. If I had only known! Collectors pay thousands of dollars for some of these rare movie posters. For a glimpse into the world of old movie posters, you'll want to read the latest issue of ARCHIE & FRIENDS (#59). The story is titled "The Paper Caper." When someone steals Mr. Lodge's rare movie poster collection, Archie and his friends head to Hollywood to try to catch the film fan felon. Be sure to pick up your copy. Who knows, this issue may become a rare collector's item!

Are your parents always on your case about cleaning up your room? Do they keep your door closed when company comes over? What's with you anyway? What's the big deal? Cleaning your room can be rewarding. You may find some money that you lost, or better still, a couple of slices of pizza from your last party. However, if you were Veronica, cleaning your room would be up to the maid. But when Veronica starts taking the maid for granted, her mother denies her the privilege of one. Can the Lodge mansion survive Veronica's domestic deficiencies? Read "Summer Help" in VERONICA #128. On sale next month.
